The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

BURLINGTON, November 16, 1763.

The SPEECH of His Excellency WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Esq; Captain General, Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of New-Jersey, Chancellor and Vice Admiral in the same.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, and Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

BY the Papers which I shall order to be laid before you, you will find that, since your last Sessions, the Indians have commenced fresh Hostilities against the English, and even extended their Incursions to the Borders of this Province. Soon after the first Intelligence of their Depredations on the Frontiers of the neighbouring Governments, I directed the Commanding Officer of the Militia in Sussex, being the County most exposed, to have his Regiment fitted for Service, so that he might either march the whole, or send Detachments, to any Part that should be attacked, or in Danger: He was likewise ordered, in case of Necessity, to call upon the Militia of the other Counties for Assistance. Accordingly, when the Indians had begun to ravage the adjacent Part of Pennsylvania, he sent a Detachment to occupy the several Posts which had been fortified on our Frontier during the late War. But as a Party of the Enemy did notwithstanding come over, and destroy some of the Settlers within the Limits of this Province; and as the rest of the Inhabitants of that County were thereby greatly alarmed, and apprehensive of Danger, I ordered Ninety Men from the Militia of Morris County to their Relief: And soon after, by the Advice of the Council, I reinforced them with Forty-five Men from the Regiment of Somerset, and directed the Fortifications at the several Posts to be repaired. Had not this Assistance been granted, there is great Reason to believe the Inhabitants would have abandoned their Settlements, and that Part of the Country become entirely depopulated, the Consequences of which are too obvious to need mentioning.---I have also empowered Jonathan Hampton, Esq; to furnish the Militia which are now, or may hereafter be sent up to the Frontier, with Provisions, and other Necessaries. Both he, and they, place great Confidence in the Honour and Justice of the Legislature of this Province, and expect to meet with a proper Compensation for their Services.

After all, Gentlemen, I am far from thinking that even if the whole Militia of the Province were sent to our Borders, they would be sufficient to secure effectually so extended a Frontier against the Inroads of Savages. A skulking Party of them will always have it in their Power, notwithstanding all our Care, to steal in unperceived, commit their Outrages, and retire with Impunity. Would you keep the War from your own Country, there is no Way so effectual as to carry it into that of the Enemy. By acting on the Defensive only, you give them almost every Advantage they could desire. They may uninterrupted assemble together from distant Quarters, settle their Plans of Operation, and take their own Time for carrying them into Execution. But if we were to send Parties of Rangers into their Country, to cut off the Communication between their several Places of Residence, surprize them in their Hunting and Fishing, destroy their Corn Fields, bring off their Women and Children, and burn their Habitations, we should, in a little Time, be able to oblige them to accept whatever Terms we might think proper to dictate. In short, if we would fight them in their own Way, we should find that an Indian War would soon be stripped of all its Terrors: And this, were the Colonies united in their Measures, would be a Matter of no Difficulty, as we could then with Ease furnish ten Parties for one that could be furnished by the Enemy.

These having been long my Sentiments with regard to the Method of conducting a War against Indians, it affords me particular Pleasure to have it now in my Power to lay before you a Plan of Sir Jeffery Amherst's, for "putting in "Execution such offensive Operations as may be most ef-"fectual for reducing the Savages, and securing Peace and "Quiet to the English Settlements hereafter." For this desirable Purpose, the General makes a Requisition of 600 Men, to be raised, cloathed, and paid by this Province: Arms, Tents, and Provisions he undertakes to supply on the Part of the Crown. They, with the Troops that are to be raised in New-York, and such Regulars as can be collected, are to be employed in punishing the Savages to the Northward, while the Forces raised in the Southern Colonies are carrying on their Operations against the Enemy in that Quarter.---

The Plan proposed, Gentlemen, appears extremely judicious, and will probably, if well executed, be productive of the most salutary Effects. It will too, I am convinced, be a considerable Saving to the Province: For the frequent taking the Inhabitants from their several Employs, marching them to the Frontiers, and maintaining them while there, is attended not only with a great Expence to the Public, but a heavy Loss to Individuals, who being many of them Masters of Families, their private Affairs must suffer greatly in their Absence.

Although the People of this Province have had but very little, if any, Commerce with Indians, yet I think it advisedable, on the present Occasion, that a Law should be passed forthwith, for making it highly penal to supply them with any military Stores whatever.

I have but little more, Gentlemen, to add on this Head. You must be as fully convinced as myself that, unless during the War we make these Barbarians feel very sensibly the Weight of our Resentment, any Peace we may hereafter conclude with them, will be but of short Duration. Their seizing upon the Effects, and massacring the Persons of the Traders who came among them, upon their own Invitation; their murdering, in cold Blood, the Garrisons who had surrendered on Promises of Safety and Protection; and their butchering Women and Children, and even Persons who had done them signal Favours, are such strong Instances of their Breach of Faith, Treachery, and Inhumanity, that they no longer deserve to be considered as in the Scale of human Beings, or indeed upon a Level with the ravenous Beasts of the Wilderness.

The Company in the Pay of this Province, which has been long stationed at Niagara, is, as you will see by the Papers communicated to you, greatly reduced. Part of them are now on their Return to the Province, and the General has promised to discharge the Remainder as soon as the Service will admit of it. Some additional Provision there will be a Necessity of making on their Account.

The Re-enacting (and amending, if requisite) the Law for regulating the Militia, is another Matter that I must recommend to you as absolutely necessary.

Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

As I form my Expectations of your future from your past Conduct, I cannot admit of a Doubt that you will most chearfully raise the Supplies now required.---It would, I assure you, be with Reluctance that I should consent to lay any additional Taxes on a People, who have borne so large a Share of the Burthen of the late War, did I not know that their immediate Preservation made it a Matter of Necessity.

Gentlemen of the COUNCIL, and Gentlemen of the GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

You will, perhaps, when you have gone through the several Matters I have now recommended to you, think it a convenient Season for engaging in the other Business of the Province. If this should be the Case, you may depend on finding me ready to co-operate with you in whatever may be necessary for the Public Service.

By the Honourable

JOHN PENN, Esq;

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

And I do hereby strictly charge and command all Magistrates, Sheriffs, and other Officers whatsoever, within this Government, to use their utmost Care and Diligence in detecting and apprehending the said Offenders, that they may be brought to Justice.

We are aſſured by a gentleman who left Dunkirk a few days ago, that there was then in that harbour a 90 gun French ſhip of war, and that the trifling demolition done there was of no conſequence, nor will the French, it is thought, any thing like comply with the treaty with regard to that place.

We hear his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York will ſpend only one week in Liſbon, from whence he will proceed up the Streights, touch at Minorca, view the ſtate of the fortifications there, particularly of St. Philip's caſtle, and immediately make the beſt of his way to Leghorn, where, it is ſaid, he will land with a grand retinue, in order to make the tour of that part of Italy.

We hear from Scotland, that a large quantity of good Tar, equal to that from North-Carolina, having been extracted from fir and pine trees in the ſhire of Lothian, the proprietors intend to erect a manufacture of that kind, which cannot fail to prove vaſtly beneficial, by leſſening our eaſt country trade for that commodity very conſiderably.

Sept. 30. Yeſterday there was but a very thin Court at St. James's, and none of the Royal Family were preſent.

Notwithſtanding the ſeveral promotions and changes that have lately been made in the Public Offices, we hear that ſeveral more changes will take place before the meeting of the Parliament.

Wedneſday morning the Earl of Bute was two hours with his Majeſty at Buckingham houſe.

The following changes are confidently talked of ſoon to take place; Lord Holland, Privy Seal. Right Hon. Charles Townſhend, Paymaſter of the Forces. Duke of Rutland to retire. Duke of Marlborough, Maſter of the Horſe. Marquis of Granby to be Captain-General of his Majeſty's Forces.

From Peterſburgh we hear, that the Empreſs has declared ſhe will make uſe of the two new 60 gun ſhips lately launched, for a voyage next year to Revel and Livonia.

Oct. 5. By letters from Madrid we learn, that frequent couriers arrive there from the courts of Vienna and Verſailles. Some differences have ariſen between thoſe Courts, relative to the treaty of alliance concluded between them at the beginning of the late war. France, it is ſaid, claims to be reimburſed the ſubſidies which ſhe paid to Ruſſia, Sweden, and other allies of the Empreſs Queen. The Catholic King wiſhes well both to France and Auſtria, and endeavours to mediate between them; and will ſucceed, it is thought, unleſs France rigidly inſiſts on having certain places in the Netherlands, as the indemnification ſtipulated.

They write from Vienna, that Councils were ſcarce ever held more frequently than at preſent, and that their Imperial Majeſties, for the moſt part, aſſiſt at them. That there was lately a report of reviving the old ſyſtem of the balance of power, and renewing the alliance with England; but it gained little credit, though many were of opinion, that that ſtep would be much for the advantage of the houſe of Auſtria, eſpecially if ſhe ſhould not be able to renew the truce with the Turks, of which there is ſome doubt, as the new Vizir inſiſts on ſeveral changes being made from the former truce, to which the Empreſs Queen is not diſpoſed to agree. Mean while, the Court of Vienna continues to take the neceſſary ſteps to cover Hungary. The laſt advices ſay, that the Turkiſh troops have drawn ſomewhat nearer to the frontiers of that kingdom, and that their number has been reinforced; that, however, they have not, hitherto, committed any hoſtility; but that ſeveral inhabitants of the frontiers had removed with their beſt effects towards the heart of the kingdom.

In order finally to ſettle the expences of the German war, his Majeſty has thought proper to appoint Commiſſaries, who are to examine and adjuſt all the claims ſtill remaining, as well thoſe which relate to the foreign troops in the pay of Great-Britain, as thoſe concerning the extraordinaries of the war. Theſe Commiſſaries will be ready to receive, in London, the accounts of all ſuch claims till the 31ſt of December next, after which date no more will be admitted. The accounts and the vouchers, after paſſing theſe Commiſſaries, will be laid before the Parliament, in order to obtain the payment of what may be juſt and reaſonable, for no regard will be paid to any that ſhall appear otherwiſe. And thoſe amongſt the claimants, whoſe impatience made them ſo imprudent as to ſeize ſome of the magazines belonging to the Britiſh crown which remained in Germany, will be taken no notice of, in this general liquidation, till ſuch time as they have ſet forth the motives for their conduct, and made good the loſs and damage occaſioned by their ill-judged violence.

We hear from Jamaica, Long Iſland, that laſt week died there one John Cockeſer, who was born ſo long ago, that for many years he had forgot his age.---He often ſaid he was a ſoldier in the fort in Governor Leyſner's time (who was here during a civil war) and had been a man grown ſeveral years before he enliſted, and that, when a young man, he had often ſhot ſquirrels, &c. on or near Pot Baker's Hill, in this city, which was then a wilderneſs.

PHILADELPHIA, December 1.

From Suſſex County, in New-Jerſey, we have Intelligence, that on the 17th Inſtant Capt. Weſtbrook, with 11 more of the Militia, went over to the Pennſylvania Side, in order to bring off ſome Cattle and Effects which were left there by Perſons who had deſerted their Habitations: That about three Miles from the River they were attacked by a Body of Indians, who killed Capt. Weſtbrook, William Cartwright, Andreas Decker, Nathaniel Carter, and one Duncan: That ſix others eſcaped to Nominac, and a Perſon of the Name of Whealand is miſſing, ſuppoſed to be carried off, to give an Account of the Situation of the Forces on the River: That a Party of 150 Militia, immediately on receiving the News of this Diſaſter, went over to Pennſylvania, to bury the Dead, who found the Bodies of five of our Men moſt inhumanly butchered, and an Indian ſhaved and dreſſed in the Mohawk Manner, who was killed in the Engagement; the white Men they brought off and buried, and ſcalped the Indian: That the Party of Indians were thought, by the Perſons engaged, to be upwards of 40 in Number, and 'tis imagined they were apprehenſive of the Alarm ſpreading, and therefore made a precipitate Retreat, as they did not carry off the Indian that was killed, and left the following Things behind them, near the Place of Action, viz. about the Quantity of a Waggon Load of ſmoaked Beef and Pork, 12 lb. of Tallow, 2 French Guns, a Mohawk Indian Cap, 1 Blanket, 2 Belts of Wampum, a Scalping-knife, Looking-glaſs, Leggings, Moquaſens, &c. And that it is the Opinion of the Inhabitants on the New-Jerſey Frontier in general, that this Party were on their Way to that Province, and that if they had not been met, as they were, by Captain Weſtbrook's Party, they would have committed great Damage that Evening among the Inhabitants on that Frontier, which it would have been out of the Power of the Guard ſtationed there to have prevented.

Extract of a Letter from Bedford, Nov. 13, 1763.

"The Convoy is returned back here from the Foot of the Allegheny Mountain, having diſcovered ſeveral Parties of Indians that were ſkulking about on the Road, which the Commanding Officer of the Eſcort judged were deſigned to take the Advantage of ſome of the difficult Paſſes, and attack him; by which, as he had not Men enough to protect the Whole, he feared a great Part of the Convoy might fall into their Hands. And it appears, from the Return of ſeveral Expreſſes, who had been ſent with Deſign to go to Ligonier, that the Officer judged right, as they found on the Allegheny Hill ſeveral large Parties of Indians, which prevented their proceeding on the Road."

In another Letter it is ſaid, that it is feared ſome of the Horſe Drivers are killed, as they had been out hunting their Horſes, and were not returned.

The Counteſs of Leiceſter Packet Boat, Captain Williſon, from Falmouth for New-York, was loſt, the Firſt of November, on the Waſh, in North-Carolina, when five Perſons were drowned.---The Mail, it is ſaid, was taken up Thirty or Forty Miles from where the Veſſel was loſt.

Captain Welſh, from Cork, is arrived at New-Caſtle with Servants.

On Saturday Morning laſt, between the Hours of One and Two, the Houſe of Mr. Jonathan Zane, in Second-ſtreet, was attempted to be broke open; they had got in the Back Way, from Lætitia Court, and lifted up the Saſh of the Room where Mr. Zane ſlept; but the Noiſe wakening him and Wife, they called out ſeveral times, who was there, and what they wanted; the Rogues, however, made no Anſwer, but ſtill ſeemed to perſiſt in getting in, till Mr. Zane's Sons, hearing the Noiſe, came down Stairs, and one of them calling to the other for the Gun that was loaded, one of the Thieves, who they imagined had got into the Room, made haſtily off, and in the going out, broke a Pane of Glaſs, which fell on the Outſide of the Window, and got away.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM FRANKLIN, Eſq;
Captain General, Governor, and Commander in Chief in and over His Majeſty's Province of Nova Cæſarea, or New-Jerſey, and Territories thereon depending in America, Chancellor, and Vice Admiral in the ſame, &c.
The humble ADDRESS of the REPRESENTATIVES of the ſaid Province, in GENERAL ASSEMBLY convened.

May it pleaſe your EXCELLENCY,

WE His Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the Colony of New-Jerſey, in General Aſſembly convened, ſenſible of the ſalutary Effects attending the early Meaſures taken by your Excellency for the Defence of the Frontiers, return you our hearty Thanks for the Safety and Protection of the People under your Government.

To enable your Excellency to prevent the Incurſions of the Indians, till a ſufficient Force can be raiſed, we have provided for the Militia detached by your Excellency; alſo for repairing the Block-houſes; and that the Militia may not be too much harraſſed, we have paſſed a Bill for the levying Two Hundred Men, to be ſtationed as a Frontier Guard, and to relieve the Militia now there by your Order.

We have paſſed a Bill for continuing the old Militia Act, and alſo one for prohibiting the Sale of Warlike Stores to ſuch Indians as do not now reſide in this Government.

As to carry on, to Effect, any War that it may be thought proper to enter into with the Indians, the joint Efforts of all the Colonies muſt be more effectual than the moſt vigorous Exertions of any one or two, and the Occaſion generally intereſting, we muſt confeſs ourſelves at a Loſs to know why His Majeſty's General ſhould confine the Northern Part of his Requiſition to this Colony, and New-York only. And apprehending that the Defence of our Frontiers is as much as can be expected from us, until the other Provinces concerned in the preſent alarming Situation of Indian Affairs are alſo called upon for their proportionable Aid, we have been obliged to poſtpone granting the Requiſition, ſo far as it regards the entering into offenſive Meaſures, for the preſent.

When His Majeſty's Pleaſure ſhall be ſignified, and the other Governments come into ſuch Meaſures as the General may propoſe, for remedying an Evil that has long concerned the Provinces to know the Cauſe of, in order to apply an adequate Remedy, we ſhall, on our Parts, not fail to give our beſt Attention, and grant every Requiſition that can reaſonably be aſked.

By Order of the Houſe,
ROBERT OGDEN, Speaker.

To the Honourable
JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware,
The humble ADDRESS of the MINISTERS, WARDENS and VESTRIES of the SWEDISH and GERMAN Lutheran Churches in Pennſylvania.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

WE the Miniſters, Wardens and Veſtries of the Swediſh and German Lutheran Churches in this Province, beg Leave to congratulate your Honour on your ſafe and happy Arrival to this Government.

The greateſt Bleſſing that GOD can vouchſafe to a People is to appoint, in his Providence, One to preſide over them, who has the Religion of CHRIST near at Heart, and is a nurſing Father for his Church upon Earth. We therefore heartily join our Brethren of the Church of England, in Prayers to GOD, that under your Honour's Adminiſtration this Bleſſing may be imparted to this Part of the World.

As one of the Precepts of that Goſpel of our heavenly Maſter, which we are called to preach, is to inculcate on our Hearers Loyalty and Obedience to our moſt gracious Sovereign, and all in Authority under him, we truſt we ſhall be the more enabled to preſs this upon their Conſciences, when they ſhall ſee your Honour ſhining in thoſe Virtues which are the Characteriſticks of a Chriſtian Governor.

We give your Honour the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that it ſhall be our earneſt Endeavour, by every Thing in our Power, to recommend ourſelves, and the People under our Care, to your Honour's Countenance and Protection.

Signed, in Behalf of the united Miniſtry of the Swediſh and German Churches, by C. M. WRANGEL, Commiſſary of the Swediſh Churches upon Delaware, and HENRY MUHLENBERG, Preſident of the German Miniſtry.

To which his Honour was pleaſed to give the following
ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM obliged to you for theſe Compliments of Congratulation on my Appointment to this Government. And I ſincerely wiſh you Succeſs in your pious and commendable Endeavours to promote the Cauſe of Religion, and to inſtil in the Minds of your People Loyalty and Obedience to His Majeſty; in the doing of which you will very juſtly intitle yourſelves to my Protection.

To the Honourable
JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware,
The humble ADDRESS of the Directors of the JULIANA LIBRARY COMPANY, in Lancaſter.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

AMONG the many uſeful and public ſpirited Inſtitutions, which the happy Eſtabliſhment of Pennſylvania, and the Liberality of its Proprietaries, have promoted and encouraged, public Libraries have ſhared the Attention of the People.

Knowledge and Literature are the natural Fruits of Liberty, and have been patronized and cheriſhed in every free and well regulated Community---On all moral and civil Conſiderations whatever, they are the higheſt Bleſſing, in Value and Importance, that we can enjoy; and therefore to their Intereſt the virtuous and patriot Heart has ever been a Friend.

To a GENTLEMAN ſo nearly related to this Province, and its firſt great Founder and Legiſlator, the Directors of the Juliana Library Company, in Lancaſter, eſteem themſelves happy in being enabled, as a Body Corporate, to pay their Addreſs; and to join the public Voice, in congratulating your Honour upon your Acceſſion and ſafe Arrival to the Government thereof.

The Library, of which we are honoured with the Direction, is yet in its Infancy; but through the generous Encouragements it has received from your Honourable Family, and late worthy Predeceſſor, it has raiſed its Head, and flouriſhed: And from our View of it, in its preſent State, we indulge the pleaſing Expectation, that to us and our Poſterity it will afford ſuch Advantages as may render us more happy and ſerviceable to ourſelves, and beneficial to our Country.

We flatter ourſelves, Sir, that you will deign to favour this Infant Inſtitution with your Countenance and Protection.

May your Honour live long among us, diſtinguiſhed as the Patron of Virtue and Letters!----Eaſy and happy in the Diſcharge of the great Duties of your exalted Station!----And may you, through Life, enjoy the glorious Opportunity of diffuſing the Bleſſings of a juſt and equitable Adminiſtration among all that are committed to your Care. Signed, by Order of the Directors, by CALEB SHEWARD, Secretary.

To which his HONOUR was pleaſed to give the following
ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for this very reſpectful Addreſs. The Advancement of Knowledge and uſeful Learning, in the Government over which I preſide, cannot fail of engaging my Attention; and you may aſſure yourſelves, I ſhall neglect no Opportunity of affording all the Encouragement in my Power to the well eſtabliſhed Library under your Direction.

SAVANNAH, in Georgia, November 3.

By an expreſs which arrived yeſterday from Auguſta, which place he left on Saturday laſt, we learn, that his Excellency our Governor, with his attendants, arrived there on Tueſday morning the 25th ult. the other Governors were expected the day the expreſs came away, and it was thought they would proceed to buſineſs as on Monday. About 200 Cherokees, together with the Chickeſaws, Catawbas, two Choctaws, and 60 of the Upper and Lower Creeks, had been there ſome days, and near 100 more of the latter were daily looked for. A good underſtanding ſubſiſts between the Cherokees and Chickeſaws, but the Creeks and Cherokees ſeem not to be upon the beſt of terms.

Nov. 10. Our accounts from Auguſta are, That on Wedneſday the 2d the three Governors from Charleſtown, with their attendants, arrived there; on Saturday the congreſs was opened at Fort Auguſta, when the Indians, in number between 7 and 800, received a talk, to which they were to return an anſwer on the Monday following. It is thought that the whole buſineſs will be finiſhed, and that the four Governors will ſet out on their return in the Georgia and South-Carolina ſcout-boats the end of this week, or beginning of next. A bad underſtanding ſtill ſubſiſts between the Creeks and Cherokees.

We hear that the boundaries of this province are extended to St. John's River.

Nov. 17. On Monday the 7th inſtant, the different nations of Indians that were preſent at the congreſs at Auguſta, returned their anſwer to the talk delivered by the Governors, in his Majeſty's name, the Saturday before; on Wedneſday the 9th their Excellencies made their reply; and next day a treaty of peace and friendſhip was ſigned by the Governors and the chiefs of the Indians; after which the congreſs broke up. The Indians ſeemed all well diſpoſed; the Creeks, ſenſible of his Majeſty's beneficence, and his clemency towards them, in forgiving all paſt offences, of their own accord extended the boundaries between their lands and the Engliſh conſiderably to the weſtward.

CAME to the Plantation of Capt. James Taylor, in the Northern Liberties, a Cheſtnut brown Horſe, with a Blaze in his Forehead, one Shoe on the off Foot before, and one on the near Foot behind. The Owner, paying the Charges, may have him again, ¶

FORTY DOLLARS Reward.

RUN away, the 25th of December, 1760, from the Subſcriber, living in the Diſtrict of Southwark, County of Philadelphia, an Apprentice Lad, named Abraham Praul, then about 18 Years and an Half of Age, about 5 Feet 9 or 10 Inches high, but ſuppoſe he has grown ſomething taller, round ſhouldered, ſtoops forward, fair Complexion, ſomewhat freckled in the Face, ſpeaks quick and ſharp, and is a good Workman at the Shipwright's Trade; he went from this in the Ship Marquis of Granby, Capt. William Lyell, bound for Liſbon, but foundered on her Paſſage, and he got to ſome of the Weſtern Iſlands; he has Parents living near Neſhaminy Ferry, in Pennſylvania. Whoever takes up ſaid Apprentice, and ſecures him, ſo as his Maſter may have him again, ſhall have the above Reward, and reaſonable Charges, paid by JAMES PENROSE.

PARIS, September 14.

THE parliament of Grenoble being informed on the 6th, that the Marquis du Meſnil had been commanded by the King to ſee the new money edicts regiſtered by that parliament, it was ordered that the Firſt Preſident ſhould acquaint him, That they would abide by their remonſtrances, and would not deliberate on thoſe edicts; and that if he would not withdraw, they would adjourn: Next day, the parliament being aſſembled, M. du Meſnil made them a ſpeech, in which he endeavoured to ſhew the neceſſity of the impoſts. After which, taking out of his pocket his letter de cachet for the parliament, all the members went out. He ſtopt the Firſt Preſident and the Proctor General by letters de cachet, cauſed the edicts to be regiſtered, and eraſed the arret of the day before, mentioned above. In conſequence of theſe things, the members of parliament, their ladies, and children are forbid to viſit M. du Meſnil any more.

The Duke de Richelieu has ſeen thoſe edicts regiſtered in the parliament of Bourdeaux: But the parliament have entered an arret, couched in the ſtrongeſt terms, declaring the regiſtering void.

The Duke of Fitz James having received orders to repair to Toulouſe, to ſee theſe obnoxious edicts regiſtered in the parliament of Languedoc, demanded the grands honneurs, as Commandant of the Provinces; which the city agreed to give: But the parliament being informed thereof, they ordered that no honours whatever ſhould be paid him, till his commiſſion as Commandant ſhould be preſented to them, and by them be recognized.

Genoa, Sept. 3. The commiſſary general of the republick in Corſica has publiſhed an edict there, prohibiting the money lately coined by the malecontents, under the ſame penalties as if it were falſe coin.

De Paoli had begun to repair the damage done to the houſes, &c. during the late ſiege of Furiani; and had prohibited the talking of foreign troops being expected in Corſica; and ordered all the gunpowder in the province of Cape Corſo to be removed farther within land into the mountains.

By letters from Marſeilles, a veſſel was arrived there from Algiers, which brought advice of peace having been proclaimed between the Venetians and the Regency of Algiers; and that M. Gervaſone was gone for Tunis to ſign a treaty with that Bey; from whence he was to proceed to Tripoli.

The maſter of a veſſel from Tunis ſays, that the Salletine Cruizers had taken two Tuſcan, and two French veſſels coming from Salonica, and a Savoyard veſſel, all richly laden.

Brandenburgh, Sept. 16. To give Godſkoffſky, the Banker, time to ſettle his affairs, the King has granted him a ſafe conduct for three months.

Erfurth, Sept. 17. We hear that the peaſants of the county of Hohenſtein, which belongs to the King of Pruſſia, were obliged to carry all their horſes on the 9th inſt. to Elric, not to deliver them up, but only to ſhew them. A certain number of theſe horſes have been marked, and entered in a regiſter, and the peaſants are forbid to ſell them. When the King has occaſion for them, he cauſes them to be appraiſed, and pays the price for them. This method is now taking in ſeveral other provinces belonging to his Majeſty, by which means, when horſes are wanted for the uſe of the train of artillery, or to remount old, or form new regiments of cavalry, there will be no neceſſity for having recourſe to foreigners.

Civita-Vecchia, Sept. 12 The Dutch Conſul at Tunis has ſent notice to all the other Dutch Conſuls in the Mediterranean, that the Salletines have taken a Dutch ſhip bound from Majorca to Amſterdam with oil, and alſo a Tuſcan veſſel. The Conſul adds, that theſe pirates have more particularly declared againſt the French and Spaniards.

Toulon, Sept. 5. When the peace was ſigned, an order came for three of the chief engineers of this place to go over to Mahon, and take exact plans and elevations of every baſtion and hornwork in the place, to ſurvey the heights in the neighbourhood which might ſerve as ſites for batteries, and ſound every part of the harbour of Mahon, and take the bearings, which ſerve as a guide to the pilots.

LONDON, September 27.

The States of Holland have referred the affair of the late bankruptcies to the Magiſtrates of Amſterdam, to do therein as to them ſhall ſeem moſt proper.

Sept. 29. Monday Mrs. Hunt, a Labourer's wife near Fore-ſtreet, was brought to-bed of four boys, who are all likely to do well.

People in Holland are apprehenſive, that if the warehouſes belonging to the Dutch at Smyrna have been burnt in the late fire, ſome freſh bankruptcies will follow upon it.

Oct. 1 His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Sir William Breton, one of the Grooms of his Bedchamber, to be his Privy Purſe, in the room of Lord Bute.

The Lords of the Admiralty have put into commiſſion his Majeſty's new ſhip Auguſta, of 64 guns, now at Chatham, where ſhe is to be ſtationed as a guard-ſhip, and have given the command of her to Captain Matthew Whitwell.

Extract of a Leter from Bagdad, April 25.

"Since Kerim Kan made himſelf maſter of all Perſia by the defeat of Fat-Ali-Kan, the highways are ſafe, trade has recovered its vigour, caravans are very frequent, and between fifteen and twenty thouſand families of that kingdom, who had retired here, are ſucceſſively returning to their country. That vaſt empire, after being ſo long rent and ravaged by a croud of petty tyrants, ſeems to be on the point of recovering, under the wiſe and vigorous adminiſtration of Kerim Kan, its ancient ſplendor. Though this Prince has no longer any competitors, he has declined the title of King: In his firmans, and on his coin, he aſſumes only that of Sahebelzaman, which ſignifies, Maſter of the preſent time."

They write from Paris, that by letters from Toulouſe they were informed, that the Duke of Fitzjames had taken his ſeat in parliament, in quality of a peer of France; and communicated the King's order for regiſtering the edicts: The regiſtering was performed, as in the other parliaments, with only the Firſt Preſident and the Attorney-General. Fitzjames ſtaid till the Chamber of Vacations was to ſit; ſo that he remained there 17 hours. But notwithſtanding this precaution, the Parliament met, and prorogued itſelf; and paſſed an arret, declaring the regiſtering void, and forbiding the leying of the taxes impoſed by the edicts. As the Firſt Preſident and the Attorney-General refuſed to act, their places were ſupplied by the Preſident Daſme, and M. Daugear. Immediately thereafter, Fitzjames cauſed the arret to be eraſed out of the books; ſet a guard over the Preſident Daſme, and M. Daugear, to confine them to their houſes; and threatened to treat in the ſame manner all the other members of the Parliament, if they ſhould offer to aſſemble. In this ſtate were things when the laſt letters came away.

October 4. Wedneſday His Majeſty's ſhip Alarm, of 32 guns, Capt. Watſon, was put into commiſſion at Woolwich. She is to be ſheathed with copper.

On the 27th of September, at an extraordinary meeting of the ſtock-holders of the Eaſt-India Company at Paris, it was reſolved to petition the King to take upon himſelf the payment of all the debts of the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, and all its engagements of every ſort, and likewiſe to charge himſelf with all their effects and properties, and to fix an annual and invariable dividend of 64 per action: It is thought that this arrangement will take place (with perhaps a ſmall abatement in the ſum) and that the privilege will be granted to a new Company, or the trade carried on for the King's account.

October 6. They write from Paris, that the parliament of Beſancon has iſſued an arret, forbidding the collecting or paying the duties impoſed by the late edicts and declaration; and that the parliament of Grenoble has likewiſe refuſed to regiſter thoſe pieces.

Extract of a Letter from an Officer on board the Princeſs Louiſa, Adm. Tyrrell, dated off Plymouth, September 24, 1763.

"Several trials of Mr. Irwin's marine chair have been already made on board our ſhip. It enabled us to take the obſervations of the celeſtial phænomena full as ſteadily as if the obſerver had been on land. There are two marine chairs on board, differing ſomewhat in conſtruction, but contrived on the ſame principle; in theſe the gentlemen appointed by the government to try this invention take correſponding obſervations, which anſwer to the niceſt degree of exactneſs. We have alſo ſeveral other curious new-invented mathematical inſtruments to make trials of, all which cauſe us to paſs our time very agreeably; and were you here, you would imagine the whole Obſervatory at Greenwich had been tranſported into our ſhip."

A Sallee galliot is ſunk off the iſland of Lalboran, near the coaſt of Barbary, with all the crew, by a French frigate.

By a private letter from Paris we learn, that M. Nadau (ſon to the Governor of Guadaloupe, who was tried and degraded by a Court-martial) having embarked for the Weſt-Indies with his three ſiſters, who were to be married there, the ſhip they were on board of was taken by a Sallee rover. M. Nadau writes, that he had agreed for his own ranſom, and deſires the money to be remitted to him; but that it was in vain to think of ranſoming his ſiſters, ſince they were already ſold, and carried to different ſeraglio's, he did not know where. Theſe three young ladies kept houſe at Paris, and lived in a very genteel way, with unblemiſhed characters.

Extract of a letter from Mahon, Aug. 12.

"The French have knocked down all the lockers, and drawn every nail that was ſticking in the beams and walls of the ſtore-houſes. The capſtan-houſe is fallen in, the caulkers ſhed is ruined, the iron furnaces are all taken away, the oil and okum ſtore-houſes are pulled down, and a road is laid open to the country along the wharff; the latter wants repair, and is ſo filled up, that at the diſtance of 17 fathoms from it, there is but 17 feet water, and cloſe to it dry, occaſioned by the common ſewers from the town, and ſome thouſand tons of rubbiſh, which have been thrown over; all of which fall on the wharff, and waſh into the harbour with the rains. The tripping anchors are taken up, and carried away, as is every individual ſtore belonging to his Majeſty, excepting the anchors and boom at the harbour's mouth, which I ſuppoſe they let lie for their own ſecurity. The wharff at the yard ſide is ſettled much, and in ſome parts is even with the water, and very much out of repair. The bruſh is moſtly grubbed up. In return for all this, they have left us three old launches, not worth repair."

It is ſaid that an eminent ſhip builder from South-Carolina is now engaging a great many ſhipwrights, carpenters, &c. to go over to that province, in order to carry on the buſineſs of ſhip-building in all its branches; which, from the nature of the materials, is thought will anſwer better than that of New-England; the Carolina oak being found to be of a more durable texture than any to the northward.

There is now juſt finiſhed a very magnificent ſervice of plate, deſigned for a preſent from the Ruſſia merchants to the Empreſs of Ruſſia. It is valued at 1500 l.

We are now told that all arrears due from the government, will be converted into ſtock, as the navy debt was laſt year.

Laſt Saturday his Majeſty's ſhip Zephyr, lying at Deptford, was put into commiſſion, and the command given to Captain James Bramer.

The French King, by an ordinance dated the 31ſt of July laſt, has eſtabliſhed nine packet boats between Rochefort and the Weſt-Indies, one to go about the tenth of every month. The captains will take on board the diſorderly youths who ſhall be delivered over to them by the Commandant of the Marine at Rochefort; and go firſt to Cayenne, from thence to Martinico, then to St. Domingo, and from this laſt return directly to Rochefort. At all theſe three ſettlements, they will take on board the officers and ſoldiers who have leave to return to France.

It was in conſequence of a new ſtate of the affairs of the French India Company, exhibiting large ſums due by the Company, with which the proprietors were not before made acquainted, that the majority reſolved, at the general meeting on the 27th paſt, to aſk the King to take all the funds of the Company into his own hands, and even their excluſive privilege of trading to India, and to allow them a perpetual annuity of 64 livres for each action, free of all deductions. The Comptroller-General was not at this meeting. The day before actions des Indes were at 807. 10.

Oct. 13. By letters from on board the Earl of Halifax, Captain Oſwald, arrived at Dover from Senegal, we are informed, that the French had not appeared to take poſſeſſion of Goree, on the 8th of Auguſt, being the day he ſailed from thence.

The French King has taken from the Preſidents of the Parliament of Grenoble the right of commanding that province in the abſence of the Military Commandants. By an arret of the Council of State, the reſolutions of this Parliament of the 6th, relative to the money-edicts, are annulled, and ordered to be eraſed from the regiſters, and this Arret of the Council to be entered in their ſtead; with orders not to obſtruct the execution of theſe money-edicts, upon pain of an extraordinary proſecution.

St. James's, Oct. 8. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint Montague Wilmot, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Captain-General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majeſty's province of Nova Scotia in America, in the room of Henry Ellis, Eſq; who has requeſted leave to reſign that Government.

By the Honourable

JOHN PENN, Esq;

Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Information hath been made to me, not only that divers Attempts have of late been made to rob, but that several Robberies have been actually committed on His Majesty's Subjects, travelling on the Highways, near the City of Philadelphia, by Persons unknown, one of which Robberies was committed on Saturday last, on the Wissahiccon Road, and was accompanied with the Murder of Henry Hamilton, the Person robbed, to the great Terror and Annoyance of the said Subjects, coming to, and returning from, the said City: And whereas it is of great Importance that a Stop should, as soon as possible, be put, in this young Colony, to Crimes of so evil and pernicious a Nature, and the Authors and Perpetrators thereof brought to condign and exemplary Punishment; I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the Advice of the Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby offering a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Person or Persons, who shall make known, and cause to be apprehended, all or any of the Persons, who were concerned as Perpetrators or Accomplices, in the Robbery and Murder of the said Henry Hamilton; and likewise His Majesty's PARDON, over and above the said Reward, to either of the said Accomplices, who shall discover, and cause to be apprehnded, the Person who committed the said Murder; and the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS for the making known and apprehending, all or any of the Persons concerned as Authors, Perpetrators or Accomplices, in any of the other Robberies, or Attempts to rob, on the said Highways, since the First Day of October last, so that he or they shall be convicted thereof according to the due Course of Law. And I do hereby strictly charge and command all Magistrates, Sheriffs, and other Officers whatsoever, within this Government, to use their utmost Care and Diligence in detecting and apprehending the said Offenders, that they may be brought to Justice.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province, at Philadelphia, the Twenty-second Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, and in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

JOHN PENN.

By his Honour's Command,
JOSEPH SHIPPEN, jun. Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

To the Honourable
JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware,

The humble ADDRESS of the MISSIONARIES OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND, in the Province of Pennſylvania.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

ANIMATED with Sentiments of Duty and Reſpect, we the Miſſionaries of the Church of England, in the Province of Pennſylvania, beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity our diſperſed Situation would allow of, to be admitted with our Compliments of Congratulation, upon your Appointment to the Adminiſtration of this Government, and your ſafe Arrival among us.

Submiſſion to civil Authority being eſſentially neceſſary for the Support of good Government, the Church of England hath always manifeſted her Loyalty to the King, and all in Authority under Him.

Upon theſe Principles it is our Duty, as well as Inclination, to form our Conduct; and we aſſure your Honour that we will, as far as our Influence extends, contribute, with Chearfulneſs and Zeal, to impreſs them upon the Minds of the People committed to our Care; and to make them ſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings they enjoy, in the free Exerciſe of their Religion, and the Advantages of civil Government, under the benign and auſpicious Reign of a Proteſtant and Patriot King.

By theſe Means we hope to render ourſelves acceptable to your Honour, and to enjoy the Continuance of that Favour which we happily experienced under your worthy and benevolent Predeceſſor.

Permit us, Sir, to recommend the Miſſion in this Province to your Honour's Protection and Countenance.---And we pray, that the Supreme Governor of the Univerſe may ſupport and direct you, through all the weighty Duties of your high Station, and render your Adminiſtration an Honour to yourſelf, and a permanent Felicity to the People of Pennſylvania.

Signed by Order, and in Behalf of the ſaid Miſſionaries,
HUGH NEILL, Miſſionary of Oxford.
December 16, 1763.

To which his HONOUR was pleaſed to give the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM very thankful to you for this obliging Addreſs, on my Appointment to the Government of this Province.---Your Endeavours to inculcate loyal as well as religious Principles, among the People committed to your Care, are very commendable.---And you may be aſſured, that ſuch a Conduct in the Miſſionaries of the Church of England, will always recommend them to the Favour and Protection of this Government.

By the Honourable
JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Information hath been made to me, not only that divers Attempts have of late been made to rob, but that ſeveral Robberies have been actually committed on His Majeſty's Subjects, travelling on the Highways, near the City of Philadelphia, by Perſons unknown, one of which Robberies was committed on Saturday laſt, on the Wiſſahiccon Road, and was accompanied with the Murder of Henry Hamilton, the Perſon robbed, to the great Terror and Annoyance of the ſaid Subjects, coming to, and returning from, the ſaid City: And whereas it is of great Importance that a Stop ſhould, as ſoon as poſſible, be put, in this young Colony, to Crimes of ſo evil and pernicious a Nature, and the Authors and Perpetrators thereof brought to condign and exemplary Puniſhment; I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the Advice of the Council, to iſſue this Proclamation, hereby offering a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall make known, and cauſe to be apprehended, all or any of the Perſons, who were concerned as Perpetrators or Accomplices, in the Robbery and Murder of the ſaid Henry Hamilton; and likewiſe His Majeſty's PARDON, over and above the ſaid Reward, to either of the ſaid Accomplices, who ſhall diſcover, and cauſe to be apprehended, the Perſon who committed the ſaid Murder; and the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS for the making known and apprehending, all or any of the Perſons concerned as Authors, Perpetrators or Accomplices, in any of the other Robberies, or Attempts to rob, on the ſaid Highways, ſince the Firſt Day of October laſt, ſo that he or they ſhall be convicted thereof according to the due Courſe of Law. And I do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Magiſtrates, Sheriffs, and other Officers whatſoever, within this Government, to uſe their utmoſt Care and Diligence in detecting and apprehending the ſaid Offenders, that they may be brought to Juſtice.

Given under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Twenty-ſecond Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, and in the Fourth Year of His Majeſty's Reign.

JOHN PENN.

By his Honour's Command,
JOSEPH SHIPPEN, jun. Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

The above Robbery and Murder was committed between the Hours of One and Two in the Afternoon, by a middle ſized Man, who wore a light coloured Coat, and had black Hair, or a Wig.

City of Philadelphia, December 13, 1763.

AS it is intended to put in Execution the Law for cleanſing the paved Streets and Alleys of this City, and in order thereto to divide the ſame into two Parts; one to contain all the Pavements South of High (or Market) Street, together with the ſame; the other, thoſe Northward of ſaid Street; any Perſons willing to undertake this Buſineſs, under the Regulations of the Act of Aſſembly, are deſired to ſend in their Propoſals, ſealed, on or before the 30th Inſtant, to the MAYOR, for Conſideration.

By the Law it is enacted, "That the Mayor or Recorder, with four Aldermen, and four City Commiſſioners, ſhall, from time to time, employ and agree with proper and capable Perſons to clean the Streets, &c. and to remove and carry off the Dirt and Filth, in ſuch Manner, and at ſuch Times, as they ſhall appoint; and a Penalty of Five Pounds is laid on ſuch Perſon, ſo agreed with, for not taking on him the Office of Scavenger, and Twenty Shillings for every Offence, in not removing all and every Part of the Filth, &c.

"And all Houſekeepers, and Owners or Occupiers of Lots, and Sextons or Keepers of Churches, and other public Buildings, and of Burying Grounds, are to ſweep their Foot-ways, where the Cart-way is paved, once a Week, when not hindered by Ice, under the Penalty of Five Shillings for Neglect or Refuſal.

"And no Perſon is to caſt, or lay any Shavings, Aſhes, Dung, or other Filth, or Annoyance, on any Pavement, under a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings for each Offence, but is to keep ſuch Shavings, &c. in ſome other Place, till the Scavenger ſhall attend with his Cart to carry off the ſame, which he is to do once a Week, if required, under the Penalty of Five Shillings for Neglect or Refuſal.

"Provided that all Perſons pay ſuch Price as ſhall be ſettled, for carrying off all Mud, Aſhes, and other Filth, ariſing from their Trades or Occupations, and not incident to common Houſe-keeping; unleſs they chuſe to carry it off otherwiſe at their own Expence."

For the Entertainment of the CURIOUS,

A COURSE of ELECTRICAL EXPERIMENTS, with explanatory LECTURES, is propoſed to be exhibited at the College, in this City, on Thurſday and Friday next Week, provided the Air be dry enough.

By EBENEZER KINNERSLEY, M. A. Profeſſor of Engliſh and Oratory in the College and Academy of Philadelphia.

This Courſe will be divided into two Lectures; in which, among many other Particulars, it will be ſhewn, that the ELECTRIC FIRE, produced by the Friction of Glaſs, or any other Electric Subſtance, is not the ſame with CULINARY FIRE, but is real LIGHTNING, the very ſame, in all Reſpects, with that which is ſeen and heard in a THUNDER-GUST; and that our Bodies, at all Times, contain enough of it to ſet a Houſe on Fire.

Above fifty curious Experiments will be made on LIGHTNING; the principal Laws by which it always acts will be exhibited and explained; and a practicable Method ſhewn, and an Inſtance given, of the happy Succeſs thereof in this City, whereby Houſes, Ships, &c. may be preſerved from being damaged by LIGHTNING.

As no One need feel the Effect of any of theſe Experiments, but thoſe who chooſe it, and as the Quantity of LIGHTNING made uſe of will be but ſmall, the moſt timorous Perſon need not apprehend being either hurt or terrified. But, as the Knowledge of Nature tends to enlarge the human Mind, and give us more noble, more grand and exalted Ideas of the Author of Nature, it is preſumed that this Courſe will be, to ſome, an agreeable Entertainment.

Thoſe who deſire to have their Dwellings effectually ſecured from the deſtructive Violence of one of the moſt awful Powers of Nature, may, by theſe Lectures and Experiments, learn more of the Nature and Properties of LIGHTNING than was ever known in the World till lately; and, at the ſame time, be fully convinced, that the Method propoſed for their Security will, if put in Practice, be attended with the deſired Succeſs; and conſequently, that Mankind, inſtead of having any juſt Objection thereto, have great Reaſon to bleſs GOD for ſo uſeful a Diſcovery. For, "A "prudent Man foreſeeth the Evil, and hideth himſelf; but the "Simple paſs on, and are puniſhed." Prov. xxii. 3.

The Lecture to begin, each Day, preciſely at Eleven o'Clock. Tickets to be had at the London Coffee-Houſe, or at Mr. KINNERSLEY's Houſe, in Market-ſtreet; Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture. ¶

FARRIERY, in all its Branches, profeſſed by WILLIAM TILLSLEY, from England.

AS the Kindneſs of Providence, in beſtowing upon us ſo uſeful an Animal as the Horſe, ought gratefully to be acknowledged among his many other Bleſſings, ſo ought we particularly to regard the ſeveral Diſeaſes to which he is incident, as it moſt aſſuredly becomes our Duty to aim at relieving them.--------The great Doctor Bracken, of Lancaſter, a Phyſician of Eminence, has ſo far complied with this Duty, that he has thought the Diſeaſes to which Horſes are ſubject, not inferior to the Dignity and Attention of the Profeſſors of Phyſick, and in Conſequence has profeſſedly written a Treatiſe on FARRIERY: But in America, when we look round among the Variety of Profeſſions, we ſcarcely meet with one who has made Farriery his particular Study; or who, in Fact, practiſes it with any Degree of Reputation. It is from this Conſideration that my Principles and Knowledge in the Science of Farriery (having ſtudied and practiced it in all its Branches, under the ableſt Grooms and Profeſſors in England, from my Infancy) has induced me to offer my Service to the Public, to whom I fear not to give Satisfaction, not only in the Treatment of Diſeaſes, but alſo in many other Performances relative to the graceful Carriage of Horſes, both as to breaking them properly, either for Rate or Saddle, or nicking them in ſuch a ſafe and eaſy Manner, as to add greatly to their Beauty and Appearance, namely, by ſetting off their Tails.

Gentlemen living in Town, or thoſe at a Diſtance, may have my Attendance, and the proper Remedies for all Sorts of Diſeaſes to which their Horſes are liable, by applying to me, at my Lodgings, the Sign of the Angel, the Corner of Fourth-ſtreet, in Race-ſtreet. ¶ WILLIAM TILLSLEY.

LONDON, October 8.

Extract of a Letter from Roſtock, in Mecklenburgh, dated September 20.

"We are all here in the greateſt Confuſion imaginable, owing to a Report which has been for ſome Days ſpread, that his Pruſſian Majeſty intends marching a Body of Troops, conſiſting of thirty thouſand Men at leaſt, into this Dutchy. Various are the Conjectures relative to the Cauſe of this intended Movement; ſome ſay it is to enforce the Payment of the Contributions, impoſed on this Dutchy in the late War, many of which were left unpaid: Others, on the contrary, aſſert, they are to pay honourably for every Thing they are ſupplied with, and are only meant as a Corps of Obſervation, to watch the Motions of the Saxon Troops which have been for ſome Time aſſembling, to march, as it is ſaid, into Poland. His Highneſs's Court, however, does not ſeem alarmed, which makes us hope all will blow over. The Country People, who experienced, in the late Troubles, what the Pruſſian Light Troops are capable of, flock in great Numbers into the fortified Towns with their moſt valuable Moveables. Roſtock is in a Manner crowded, and the Price of Lodgings, &c. riſen accordingly. We were in great Hopes the Troubles of Germany were over, at leaſt for a Time, but the real Fact is, that every Thing in this Part of the World indicates an impending Storm. Where it will firſt break we know not. The King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, is old and infirm; ſhould he ſoon die, they talk as if there would be a Revolution in the Government of Poland; but what it is to be, or how effected, we are yet in the Dark: We could ſincerely wiſh this was all we apprehended."

They adviſe from Vienna, that Count Neiperg, a Miniſter from that Court to the King of the Two Sicilies, had invented a new Machine, by which a Writer can write three Times as much in the Time they can now with a Pen. A Machine of this Kind was invented about 300 Years ago, which the ſaid Nobleman, it is ſaid, has approved.

It is ſaid a Nobleman of Diſtinction is arrived from the Court of France, with Diſpatches relative to the Demolition of Dunkirk.

Oct. 11. It is ſaid that the Merchant, who lately went off from a certain Fortreſs, was a great Agent all the laſt War for the Government; his Trade and Credit were ſo great, that he was often called, the King of G-------. Some think a certain Admiral will loſe many Thouſand Pounds by him.

By Captain Warden, in a ſhort Paſſage from Londonderry, we have the following Advices, viz.

VIENNA, September 24.

COUNT Neiperg, their Imperial Majeſties miniſter to the King of the Two Sicilies, is known to have found out a machine, called, 'The ſecret copyeſt of every individual;' by means of which any one perſon may write with two, three or more pens at once, and take ſeveral copies of what is written at the ſame time. They are actually printing it off in the French and German languages, with cuts; the author gives out that he will make another, ſomewhat reſembling the firſt, but more ſimple, and fitter for travelling ſervice.

Paris, Oct. 2. The mortality among the cattle rages violently at and in the neighbourhood of Rochfort; oxen, cows, ſheep and calves die ſuddenly, without any viſible reaſon why. If any dogs eat of their fleſh, they die inſtantly.

Genoa, Sept. 26. They write from Corſica, that Paoli has convened the General Aſſembly of that iſland, to conſider of the meaſures that may be neceſſary to be taken, in caſe any foreign troops ſhould be ſent to oblige the Corſicans to ſubmit to the Republic of Genoa.

Peterſbourg, Sept. 13. The Empreſs is perfectly recovered from her late illneſs, and aſſiſts perſonally as uſual in all councils of ſtate. 'Tis certain ſhe has given orders for building ſeveral more new men of war, being determined to render her navy as reſpectable as ever it has been.

Paris, Oct. 3. Upon a report that has been made at Court, that there is a place in the road of Breſt, where a harbour may be made, capable of containing 100 men of war, the King has commiſſioned Lieut. Gen. Tilley, director of the artillery, to go to that place, and examine whether the neceſſary fortifications can be erected there, in caſe ſuch harbour ſhould be thought proper to be made.

Dreſden, Oct. 5. His Poliſh Majeſty died ſuddenly this afternoon of a ſuffocation, at half an hour paſt five. He had for ſome days paſt been indiſpoſed with a feveriſh cold, which was thought of no ſort of conſequence.

LONDON.

Oct. 15. The King of Portugal, in imitation of the Engliſh, is putting ſeveral ſhips of war into commiſſion, and orders have been given to eſtabliſh a certain office for regiſtering 20,000 ſeamen, in caſe of an emergency.

We hear from Vigo, that 15,000 trees have lately been cut down in the ſeveral foreſts of the principality of Catalonia, which the Spaniards are now buſy in ſending down to Carthagena, and other ports in the Mediterranean, for the uſe of their marine.

It is ſaid the Dutch and French are ſo exaſperated at the many prizes made of their merchantmen, in the Mediterranean, by the Barbary Corſairs, that rather than ſee their ſubjects pillaged, they will join in one common cauſe, and ſend out a force ſufficient to raze their principal cities to the ground.

The Royal Academy of Surgery in France have given their approbation to an artificial arm, contrived by a perſon at Paris. It faſtens to the ſtump, and is made of whalebone, and with the help of an artificial hand, we are told, it performs all ſorts of motions: It is light, flexible, and no ways inconvenient.

Yeſterday there was a grand Council at St. James's, on affairs of importance; and alſo a grand levee.

It is ſaid that the occaſion of the early meeting of the Parliament, which is fixed for the 15th of November, is the ſettling the ſeveral revenue laws, which are to reſpect the new acquiſitions in North-America.

We hear the officers and ſoldiers will have proper implements and utenſils allowed them to cultivate the lands allotted them in the conquered provinces in North-America, though no expreſs mention thereof is made in the late proclamation, agreeable to what was obſerved in the firſt eſtabliſhing Nova-Scotia.

The Jane and Barbara, Chapman, from Plymouth to Yarmouth, Shields and Leith, was loſt laſt Saturday night on Harborough Sands; ſhe had upwards of 100 ſeamen on board, belonging to the Nancy, and only 25 of them ſaved.

A letter from Cheſter, to a gentleman at Mancheſter, Oct. 8, ſays, "This day ſe'nnight the Lively, a large Dublin trader, ſailed from this port, with near 200 perſons on board, many of them people of faſhion. Her cargoe was computed at 40,000 l. The night was ſo tempeſtuous, that ſhe was in the morning in the greateſt diſtreſs, and at nine the veſſel bilged about ſeven miles from Holyhead, upon a chain of rocks, and broke all to ſhivers, and every mortal periſhed. Mr. Hart, of the yacht, told me, that 23 of the moſt genteel gueſts went from his houſe as paſſengers. Mr. Smith, of the White Lion, told me, that ſhe was a very crouded ſhip, and that there was a great deal of money on board; for that he, Smith, had three ſeveral times ſent capt. Williams conveniencies for carrying large quantities of caſh down to Park-Gate. There was likewiſe much extraordinary rich furniture.

If we may truſt to our letters from Berlin, the King ſeems entirely occupied in regulating the affairs of his own dominions, and in taking all the ſteps neceſſary for rendering the return of peace as beneficial as poſſible to his ſubjects; ſo that the report of his marching troops into Mecklenburgh, appears to have no better grounds than the former report of his marching an army into Poland.

Advices from Paris are not very intereſting. Great rejoicings have been made at Nantes, in Bretagne, for the Return of peace; and it is thought it will be followed by rejoicings of the ſame kind in the capitals and moſt of the provinces.

It is ſaid the Salletines have taken 14 French merchant ſhips going to America.

The Dutch, who owed their very exiſtence as a free people to England, deſpiſed the Power of James I. and committed the maſſacre of the Engliſh at Amboyna, where they put the factory to death, and ſeized their effects; for which inſolent affront, no reparation was obtained from 1623 to 1654, when Cromwell made the Dutch pay 300,000 l. on that account.

An old affair, relating to Surinam, is now revived by our court againſt the Dutch, as a matter of ſtate; on which account they muſt either pay the demand upon them, or ſuffer letters of repriſal to iſſue againſt them.

The family convention, concluded between the courts of France and Spain, on the 15th of Auguſt 1762, for rendering more permanent and indiſſoluble the duties which they ſay muſt reſult from ſuch a natural union, was declared to be abſolutely independent of the origin, objects, motives, and events of the late war. But that compact is more regarded than ever ſince the peace; and the Dutch place their confidence in protection from the united family of the Bourbon Kings.

Oct. 18. They write from Warſaw of the 21ſt ult. that they had an account from Lithuania, that the Ruſſian troops had evacuated all that Grand Dutchy, and were advanced on their homeward-bound route to Regelin, where they reſted ſeveral days; on which the tribunal of Peterkau had reſumed its ſeſſions.

They write from Hamburgh and Holland, that by letters from Saxony they had an account, that the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, died at Dreſden the 5th inſtant; and Count de Bruhl lay at the point of death. Upon the above news, the Engliſh funds in Holland fell one per cent.

According to letters from Oſnabrug of the 4th inſt. the election of a Prince and Biſhop of Oſnabrug was fixed for the 17th inſt. when it was ſuppoſed that the young Prince, ſecond ſon to the King of Great Britain, would be elected.

The St. Lewis, an Engliſh ſloop, from London bound to Senegal, was loſt the 4th inſt. near Wykopzee, on the coaſt of Holland, and one boy drowned.

The ſloop Lord Manſell, Bacon, Maſter, from St. Ives for Briſtol, laden with copper ore, was loſt off Padſtow, but the crew ſaved.

The Catherine's Increaſe, Thornber, from Peterſburgh for Dublin, is ſtranded near Dover.

The 15th inſt. a large ſhip, drawing 17 feet water, was brought into Oſtend road by ſome fiſhermen belonging to that place, who found her at ſea without any people on board; ſhe had no maſts ſtanding but her mizen, was leaky, laden with wine and ſalt, and it is thought belongs to the Danes or Swedes, though Britiſh built.

The Patriot, a Swediſh ſhip of about 300 tons, with a cargo of deals, from Stockholm for Liſbon, ran aſhore upon the Gunfleet Sand on the 7th inſt. The Captain and crew took to their boat, and were ſoon after taken up at ſea by ſome fiſhing veſſels, and carried into Harwich.

Information has been ſent to the Admiralty-office of the following ſhips having been ſtranded, viz.

The Kerie, of Liverpool, Roger Woodburn, maſter, ſtranded on the third inſtant on the Goodwin ſands, in the county of Pembroke: Her lading conſiſted of checks, linens, velvets, chints, calicoes, and Manchester and dry goods, ſoap, candles, &c. with which ſhe was bound to the Grenades and St. Kitts.

The ſnow Phœnix, of Kinſale, whereof David Appleyard was maſter, bound from London to Dublin, with ſugar and hops, ſtranded the third inſtant near Newport, in the county of Pembroke, and all the crew and two paſſengers (one man excepted) were drowned.

The Bardſea, of Pile of Foudry, whereof John Kennel was maſter, laden with iron and copper, bound from Wicklow, in Ireland, to Chepſtow, wrecked the 3d inſtant, near Strumble-Head, Pembrokeſhire.

The Bridlington, of Bridlington, John Waddel, maſter, burthen 600 tons, bound from Narva to London, laden with timber and hemp, being at anchor near the Doghead Sand, in Norfolk, on the tenth inſtant parted her anchors, and having loſt her ſteerage, was, by the advice of the pilot, and for the preſervation of the lives of the crew, and of the ſhip and cargoe, put for the ſhore, and about four o'clock in the afternoon fell aground at Waxham, in Norfolk, where in all probability the cargoe will be ſaved.

The Jamaica ſloop of war is arrived at Plymouth, having loſt her main and mizen maſts, in a hard gale of wind, to the weſtward of Scilly.

The Empreſs of Ruſſia has declared the Biſhop of Lubec adminiſtrator and governor of the Dutchy of Holſtein, with an appointment of 40,000 rubles. In caſe the diet of Poland aſſembles, the affair of Courland will be ſubmitted to their deciſion; but if it breaks up abruptly, as moſt of the Diets have done, her Imperial Majeſty will inſiſt upon the King and republic of Poland's acknowledging the Duke de Biron immediately in quality of Duke of Courland. The Duke is in perfect health, and appears in public almoſt every day.

They write from Hamburgh, that the politicians there talk with confidence of a quadruple alliance between the Courts of Verſailles, Stockholm, Copenhagen, and Dreſden, for the ſupport of the pretenſions of the latter. In the mean time, it is obſerved that the good correſpondence between the courts of Vienna and Berlin is ſo far from being diminiſhed, that it ſeems to increaſe every Day.

His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has thought fit to order the chancellor Lamoignon de Blanemeſnil to retire to his own eſtate; immediately after which Mr. Feydeau de Brou was deprived of the ſeals; which, with the title of Vice-Chancellor, were given to M. Meupeou, who, tho' ſeventy-ſix, retains a firm ſtate of health, and is a very popular miniſter. The Eaſt-India Company have at length given way, and it is ſaid a new one will ſpeedily be formed. Twenty of the Canada delinquents have been ſent to the Chatelet; and many people think they will not be delivered from thence, but in order to go to a worſe place.

Things begin to take a favourable turn at Hamburgh, and Amſterdam; ſo that not above 25 or 30 per cent. at moſt will be loſt. The Court of France is extremely irritated at the number of French Veſſels that have been lately taken in the Mediterranean, and ſeem determined to take their revenge as ſoon as poſſible. There is a great deſertion among the troops intended for Berbice, notwithſtanding which they will embark on the 20th inſtant.

As the French were put into the re-poſſeſſion of Cape-Breton after the peace of Aix-la-Chapelle, it was natural for the Britiſh Miniſtry, in 1749, to fix their attention on the cultivation and improvement of their long neglected ſettlement of Nova-Scotia; whereby the profits of the French fiſhery would fall to the Engliſh, a potent barrier be erected for the ſecurity of the Britiſh provinces in North-America, and a perpetual ſeminary for ſailors eſtabliſhed.

The Earl of Halifax was the principal promoter of a ſcheme ſo highly advantageous to the intereſt of the Britiſh nation; and it is principally owing to the ſame worthy nobleman, that ſuch great encouragement is now given to make the firſt eſſay of the improvement of the arts of peace, by cultivating thoſe regions we have conquered.

The Spaniards are increaſing their navy at a prodigious rate, and ſo are the French; even the pacific Dutch are augmenting their marine, on a pretence of joining the French againſt the piratical ſtates of Barbary; but it is evident that their intent is to ſtrengthen the family compact.

We are aſſured, that the demolition of Dunkirk being not totally effected, has occaſioned many ſmart remonſtrances to be made by our miniſtry to the French court.---There are alſo ſome freſh differences ariſen between Spain and Portugal, in regard to ſome captures made in the late war.

The number of packet boats, which were intended to be eſtabliſhed, are now laid aſide, as the ſeveral ports are now open, being upon a peaceable foundation.

Newcaſtle, Oct. 11. We have advice here, that laſt week there was a great riot at Edinburgh, and that the Lord Provoſt has been graſſed, i. e. ſuperſeded by the city Electors: The train-bands were raiſed, and the King's guards attacked and diſperſed, and the guard-houſe, &c. deſtroyed. How this diſturbance will end, we are at a loſs to conjecture. The Lord Provoſt is generally elected for two years; and, it is ſaid, the late one had laid ſome ſort of tax upon the common people, which they would not ſubmit to.

NEW-YORK, December 15.

About 14 Days ago, the Schooner Betſey, Captain Homer, from N. Carolina, for Boſton, was caſt away on the South Side of Long Iſland; the Veſſel and Cargo loſt, but the Crew ſaved.

On Monday laſt the Pitt Packet, Captain Brigſtock, ſailed with the Mail for Falmouth.

PHILADELPHIA, December 22.

To JOHN PENN, Eſq;
Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware,

The ADDRESS of the DIRECTORS of the UNION LIBRARY COMPANY of Philadelphia.

May it pleaſe the GOVERNOR,

TO the general Expreſſions of Joy, on thy ſafe Arrival, and Acceſſion to the Government of Pennſylvania, We the Directors of the Union Library Company of Philadelphia, think it our Duty to add our unfeigned and reſpectful Congratulations.

We render them with the greater Pleaſure, as it is to a Branch of that worthy Family, from whoſe Wiſdom and Benevolence are derived the many conſtitutional Advantages which this Province enjoys, beyond any other within our Knowledge.

We preſume to hope, as public Libraries are of ſingular Uſe to the Community, that the one we are appointed to the Care of, which is founded on the ſame Plan as that of the other incorporated Company of this City, will ſhare thy Patronage and Protection.

We ſincerely wiſh that thy Adminiſtration may be as happy, as every Endeavour that we can contribute to make it ſo will be chearful, within the narrow Sphere of our Concernments.

Signed by Order of the Directors,
GEORGE DILLWYN, Secretary.

To which the GOVERNOR was pleaſed to give the following ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I THANK you for theſe Expreſſions of Joy, on my Arrival and Acceſſion to this Government.

It gives me Pleaſure to find that public Libraries increaſe and flouriſh in this Province; and I aſſure you, that the one under your Care ſhall not want my Protection and Countenance.

On Monday laſt the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province met here.

Extract of a Letter from Fort Pitt, December 1, 1763.

"I have agreeable News to communicate to you from my Wilderneſs---The Overlake Indians have ſued for Peace and Forgiveneſs in the moſt ſubmiſſive Manner---Major Gladwin has referred them to the General, and, in the mean Time, granted them a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities---They have not much to boaſt of, having loſt 90 of their beſt Warriors before Detroit, and a good many here, and miſcarried at both Places; they have never appeared before us this Way ſince our Affair, and they ſeem to vent their Spleen altogether upon the poor defenceleſs Inhabitants.

"On the 2d of October Lieutenant Brehm, with three other Officers, and 60 Men, embarked in four Row Gallies, to reconnoitre the Camp of the Savages. They fired upon him all along the Shore, but advancing to the Streights, he found them prepared to receive him with 200 Men in 18 Canoes or Pettiaugres, and one Batteau; they came cloſe round the Row Gallies to board them, favoured by a continual Fire of 150 Savages from both Shores---The Batteau, with about 30 Men, came up as hard as they could pull under Lieutenant Brehm's Stern, who was a little ſeparated from the reſt; he kept ſtill rowing, and firing with Small-arms upon the Batteau. They advanced with great Reſolution, all ſtanding upright, until they got within 30 Yards of Lieutenant Brehm, who then wore round, and poured his Grape Shot into her, which killed or frightened the whole Crew, only one remaining in the Bateau, which he paddled aſhore. He might eaſily have been taken, but the Canoes ſtill coming nearer, Lieutenant Brehm thought it was better to play upon them, which he did ſo effectually, that in Half an Hour they were all obliged to ſheer off, and put aſhore. The victorious Gallies continued to row about inſulting them, till the Men being tired with rowing againſt the Stream, they went back to the Fort, having only one Man killed, and two wounded. The Loſs of the Enemy was not known, but muſt have been great, in about three Hours firing."

Extract of a Letter from Detroit, November 1, 1763.

"A French Officer, from the Ilinois, has brought a Belt and Letter to the Savages, with an Account of the Peace between England and France, which neither the Savages nor French here believed till now. In Conſequence of this, our moſt implacable Enemies, the Ottawa's, who were the only Nation here diſpoſed for continuing the War (all the others having begged Forgiveneſs for what they have done long ago of our worthy Commandant) are now, with the reſt, begging for Peace, in the moſt abject Manner.---Mr. Prentice is well at Sanduſky, as is Mr. Winſton at St. Joſeph; and, from the preſent Diſpoſition of the Savages, I apprehend they will bring them in ſoon; to effect which, I will do all that lies in my Power."

Extract of a Letter from Sanduſky, September 20, 1763.

"Mr. Welſh and I were taken Priſoners by the Wyondots the Tenth of May laſt, about two Miles on this Side of your old Graſs-Guard, and carried immediately to Genundot, where poor Welſh was killed, as was likewiſe every one that was with me but Pompey. I have lived ever ſince, God knows, a moſt miſerable Life, every Moment in Danger of being knocked in the Head. Many Midnight Councils they held on me, but God Almighty always prevented them from hurting me. They have now put me into a Family, and I ſuppoſe made me, as they think, one of themſelves. I am in the Place of the Merchant that died laſt Winter, going to War againſt the Cherokees, and now live with his Brother, who uſes me very well, as likewiſe does Mohickon John, and believe there is no Danger now of their killing me; and as I hope the War will not laſt long, flatter myſelf with the Hopes of ſeeing you ſoon.---Mr. Smallman, and the two Levy's, were taken by the Wyondots, within four Miles of Detroit; one of the Levy's was given to the Chippawa's, and Smallman to the Shawaneſe, and I underſtand by the Indians here that they are both killed.---This Nation, they tell me, have a Mind to make Peace, but God knows whether it is ſo or not.---I ſuppoſe it is needleſs to tell you that all the Cargoe is loſt; many a Tear it coſt me, to ſee them divide, wear and tear the Goods in the Manner they did; but as it was out of my Power to help it, thought as little of it as poſſibly I could."

From Fort Bedford we have the agreeable News, that the laſt Convoy from that Place for Pittſburgh had arrived ſafe; and that the Eſcort was returned, without any Interruption from the Indians.

Containing the Freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestic.

By the HONOURABLE
JOHN PENN, Esq;
Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS I have received Information, That on Wednesday, the Fourteenth Day of this Month, a Number of People, armed, and mounted on Horseback, unlawfully assembled together, and went to the Indian Town in the Conestogoe Manor, in Lancaster County, and without the least Reason or Provocation, in cool Blood, barbarously killed six of the Indians settled there, and burnt and destroyed all their Houses and Effects: AND WHEREAS so cruel and inhuman an Act, committed in the Heart of this Province on the said Indians, who have lived peaceably and inoffensively among us, during all our late Troubles, and for many Years before, and were justly considered as under the Protection of this Government and its Laws, calls loudly for the vigourous Exertion of the civil Authority, to detect the Offenders, and bring them to condign Punishment; I HAVE THEREFORE, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Council, thought fit to issue this Proclamation, and do hereby strictly charge and enjoin all Judges, Justices, Sheriffs, Constables, Officers Civil and Military, and all other His Majesty's liege Subjects within this Province, to make diligent Search and Enquiry after the Authors and Perpetrators of the said Crime, their Abettors and Accomplices, and to use all possible Means to apprehend and secure them in some of the public Goals of this Province, that they may be brought to their Trials, and be proceeded against according to Law.

AND WHEREAS a Number of other Indians, who lately lived on or near the Frontiers of this Province, being willing and desirous to preserve and continue the ancient Friendship which heretofore subsisted between them and the good People of this Province, have, at their own earnest Request, been removed from their Habitations, and brought into the County of Philadelphia, and seated, for the present, for their better Security, on the Province-Island, and in other Places in the Neighbourhood of the City of Philadelphia, where Provision is made for them at the puplic Expence; I do therefore hereby strictly forbid all Persons whatsoever, to molest or injure any of the said Indians, as they will answer the contrary at their Peril.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province, at Philadelphia, the Twenty-second Day of December, Anno Domini One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-three, and in the Fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

JOHN PENN.

By His Honour's Command,
JOSEPH SHIPPEN, jun. Secretary.

GOD Save the KING.

FLORENCE, September 24.

WE hear from Genoa, that Paoli was gaining ground in Corsica, another province of the Balagna having declared in his favour, which hazarded the safety of the town of Calvi.

Hamburgh, October 7. The bankers who have failed here, and with whom the Jewish contractors with the mint of Berlin had deposited 170,000 crowns in gold coin, have made up their affairs in an amicable manner. They will compound that sum at the rate of 75 per cent. but as to any other claims those Jews may have, they will receive but two third parts.

Hanover, October 4. According to letters from Brunswick, the departure of the Hereditary Prince for London is not fixed; and it is thought that his Serene Highness will not be accompanied thither by his uncle, Duke Ferdinand, nor by either of the Princes of Mecklenbourg Strelitz.

LONDON, September 20.

Part of the Pembrokeshire Address.

WE beg Leave publickly to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the Growth of Licentiousness, Party Factions, and Divisions, among us, raised, fomented, and encouraged by the Writings of impious and seditious Men, under the specious Pretext of Liberty, but truly and indeed using it only as a Cloak for their malicious Wickedness; which tend to subvert every Measure that your Majesty's well known Wisdom shall dictate for the future Good of your People. We shall always think it our Duty to submit to the Determination of the legislative Powers, and to pay a ready Obedience to established Laws; we have found the Benefit of such a national Temper, under the Conduct of your Majesty, in a very dangerous War, and shall be very careful, on our Parts, to preserve it, in order to perpetuate to ourselves the Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace."

Sept. 29. At Warsaw, and several other Places in Poland, Abundance of printed Bills have been dispersed, to the following Purport: "Notice is hereby given to every One, to take up Arms against a Potentate who endeavours to create Divisions in the Kingdom, and disturb our Tranquility, and for this Purpose sends Troops into our Territories, without a previous Requisition, or any formal Permission."

"Our Ministry are wholly attentive to the Re establishment of the Marine, and have lately turned their Attention to a Forest of Pines fit for Ships Masts, which grow in the Vallee d'Aspe, in Bearn. The Expence of Carriage was so great, that none of them have, till now, been used in the Navy, though they are of the best Kind, and fit for any Shipping whatever. We formerly used annually to buy great Numbers of Masts from Foreigners, but this Trade is now at an End, for the River Gave is made navigable, by which a Communication is effected betwixt the Vallee d'Aspe and this City. Several Floats of these Masts, of various Sizes, are already come, and we daily expect great Numbers more. Considerable Quantities are ordered to be sent, for the Use of the Royal Navy, to every Dock-yard on the Coasts of Provence, Brittany, and Normandy, and, doubtless, every other Royal Harbour will soon be supplied with them; for there is such Plenty of Pines, fit for the Purpose, in this Forest, that we shall not only have enough for the Consumption of the whole Kingdom, but be able to supply, at a reasonable Rate, our Allies the Spaniards. The Price of Masts is already fallen, and those from d'Aspe are of the most ready Sale. The Felling and Bringing down this Timber is undertaken by a Company of Merchants, who will, it is said, make immense Fortunes out of the Profits; it was they who made the River Gave navigable, for the Purpose of bringing down their Floats of Timber.

Oct. 1. It is reported, that on some Remonstrances lately made to the French, concerning their not destroying the Harbour of Dunkirk, and the Demand of Payment for the French Prisoners, they replied, with an insolent Air, peculiar to Frenchmen, that Dunkirk was demolished as much as it would be; and as to the Payment of the Money, they would pay no more than they had done.

Letters from Cadiz say, that the King of Spain has given Orders to the Intendants of his Dock-yards, to see that the Shipwrights work their stated Hours; being determined to recruit his Navy as soon as possible, for which Purpose they have begun to build four Ships of the Line at Carthagena.

They write from Warsaw of the 10th of last Month, that the Conferences for settling the Affairs of Poland have taken so happy a Turn, that the Differences between the several Grandees of that Kingdom, which occasioned the calling in of the Russians, are already in a fair Way of being amicably adjusted, and they make no Doubt, but that the Diets held for putting the finishing Hand to them, will pass with great Order and Tranquility.

These Letters add, that General Soltikoff had Orders to join his Body of Troops to which ever Side should refuse to come to an Accommodation.

A vast Quantity of different Sorts of Goods of French Manufacture, having been delivered to be landed by the French, among the Indians, along the Coast of Labradore, and the Natives in the Gulph of St. Lawrence, under Colour and Pretence of Fishery, we hear our Cruizers, on the Newfoundland Station, have received Orders to have a watchful Eye on their future Conduct, and, if Need be, to make Use of the same Liberties with them as the Spaniards exercised formerly towards our Merchantmen, on a less justifiable Occasion, in the Bay of Campeachy.

The last Letters from Paris say, that the Ministers in all their Departments are as busy as in the Time of War, and that one capital Object of their Concern was the Protection of their Mediterranean Trade, to which almost an entire Stop has been put through the Captures made by Vessels under Sallietine Colours.

There are Letters in Town from France, which mention the deplorable Conditon of some of our People detained in the Goals of that Kingdom, under the particular Denomination of Ransomers, and where the Case does not entitle them to be exchanged as Prisoners of War; we hear a Method is now under Consideration for their Relief.

We hear that the Dutch, upon Account of the late great Failings at Hamburgh, &c. have sold large Sums out of our Funds, which has occasioned the late great Fall of Stocks; and that the India Company will shortly have a Meeting, to consider of disannulling their late Resolution of falling the Interest of their Bonds.

October 15. We hear that the state bed lately made in Ireland, for his Excellency the Earl of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant of that kingdom, is ornamented with four mahogony pillars. From head to foot it is ten feet four inches long, and eight feet four inches broad; the sheets and quilts are ten yards long, with a proportionable breadth. It has three mattrasses, and on them is a feather-bed, containing 18 stone of feathers. On the top of this, on one half of the bed is a straw mattrass, on the other half a hair mattrass. In order to ascend this pile, two step-ladders of mahogony are erected on each side.

We learn from Constantinople, by way of Venice, that frequent divans are held there; from whence it is conjectured, that something of great importance is on the carpet; but the most intelligent persons are divided in their opinion, whether these consultations relate to domestic or foreign concerns; but those who have the best opportunities of knowing, think they regard the interior of the empire, and that the Grand Vizir is intent upon securing his own power, by establishing that of the Grand signior on the firmest bottom.

They write from Petersburgh, that the measures of her imperial majesty, in respect to commerce and manufactures, have had the best effects possible, both with regard to the interests of her subjects, and of the revenue; and there is little reason to doubt, that if the affairs of Persia should again settle on a solid Basis, the trade of that Empire will become extremely lucrative to the Russians.

At Warsaw they seem to have more and more hopes of seeing the public tranquility restored, as commissioners are actually appointed for settling the limits between the dominions of the republic and the Empress of Russia, and thereby putting an end to the continual disputes, which the want of such a settlement has for many years occasioned.

October 18. Letters from Paris advise, that De Lyon, who was the occasion of his brother's death at Lyons (by sending him a box filled with gunpowder with two pistols, which went off as soon as he opened the box) has received sentence to have his right hand burnt with brimstone, to be broken on the wheel, and suffered to expire on it.

Letters from most parts of Ireland are filled with the melancholy accounts of bridges being torn away, many people and cattle lost, &c. in the late storm; particularly John's and Green's bridges in the city of Kilkenny, and carried away, with all the mills, and many of the inhabitants bore away with the stream, besides cattle, &c.

A letter from Haverfordwest, dated October 8, says, "The packet from Holyhead, and also from Parkgate, sailed for Ireland last Saturday in the evening, and were next morning almost at the bar of Dublin, when the hurricane arose, drove them off the coast; and, with great difficulty, one of them got into our harbour on Monday evening, and the other the next morning, but in the utmost distress, being full of passengers. It is said, and I believe it to be true, that one, if not both the packets had neither candle nor water on board, and as the sea made a free passage over the hatches, and every other place shut close, the people under deck could not see any thing. There were several persons washed overboard, but do not hear of any person of rank; one person was washed over board three times, and thrown in again by the waves, and landed here very safe. It is said that Mr. Coote, Lord Northumberland's master of the horse, was washed overboard, and the next wave threw him in again, but against the mast, which bruised him so much, that he is since dead. There were about 100 passengers locked down in the hold of one of the packets, with three horses, whose throats were obliged to be cut, and there continued till they came into the harbour, without light or water; and it was expected to find many dead when the hatches were opened, but by God's providence they were all preserved. There were several persons of fashion on board.

Graveſend, Oct. 14. Arrived, the Boſcawen, Jacobſon, from Boſton.

NEW-YORK, December 19.

Laſt Friday arrived in Town, Major Moncrieffe, and Captain Montreſor, by whom we have the following authentick Intelligence.

THAT on the 12th of October laſt, Wappocomoguth, Chief of the Miſſiſaque Indians, came under a Flag of Truce, to Major Gladwin at Detroit, to let him know, that none of his Band had hitherto committed the leaſt Hoſtilities, and that he was uſing all his Influence, to reſtore the Nations in Arms, to their Senſes; that he had prevailed on moſt of them, to liſten to his Arguments, and that thro' him (their Mediator) the Chippawas, Ottawas, Wiondots, and Pontiwatamies, ſenſible of their villainous Behaviour, begged Forgiveneſs of what was paſt, and deſired to be admitted to Council, to make their Submiſſion.

That Major Gladwin, not having at this time above Fourteen Days Proviſion in Store, liſtened to their Overtures, tho' he looked upon it as an Artifice, to lull him for the Winter, and that it was their preſent Neceſſity, in the Article of Ammunition, a Deſire to go on their hunting Grounds for their Winter Subſiſtence, with the Fear of Major Wilkins's Detachment reaching Detroit, that induced them to thoſe Meaſures.---In Council, he told them, if they convinced him of their Sincerity, all might be well again; Hoſtilities then ceaſed, and many of them went to their Hunting Grounds; Major Gladwin took that Opportunity to get Proviſions in from the Inhabitants, and Wood for the Winter.

On the 30th of October, a Courier arrived at Detroit, with a Letter from the French Officer commanding at Fort Chartres, on the Miſſiſippi, to all the Indians, adviſing them to be at Peace with their Brothers the Engliſh, as they were now one People; at the ſame Time, it contained an Invitation to them, to remove with their Families, to the Weſtern Bank of the Miſſiſippi, where they ſhould have fine Hunting Grounds, with an eaſy and flouriſhing Comme ce.

A large Party of Indians went from Detroit early this Fall, with great Quantities of Beaver, to purchaſe Ammunition at New Orleans, and it is thought their future Temper, in great Meaſure depends, on the Talk they may have with the Governor; and the Means they may fall upon to procure Supplies.---Major Gladwin continues upon his Guard, and expects the Renewal of Hoſtilities in the Spring. (So far Detroit Intelligence.)

The Detachment under the Command of Major Wilkins, in their Paſſage over Lake Erie, met with great Difficulties by contrary Winds, and bad Weather: On the 7th of November, about 10 o'Clock at Night, they were ſuddenly ſurprized with a violent Gale of Wind, within Thirty Leagues of Detroit, at a place called Point-du Pin; in which they loſt three Officers, viz. Lieut Davidſon, of the Artillery, Lieut. Painter, of the Platoons, and Mr. Williams, Surgeon to the 80th Regiment; four Sergeants, ſixty three Private, and a Canadian Pilot: All their Ammunition, and great Part of their Proviſions loſt, and deſtroyed.---In theſe Circumſtances Major Wilkins ordered a Council, to conſider the preſent Situation of the Detachment, who were of Opinion, it was better for the Service to return to Niagara, than proceed to Detroit, without Ammunition, and with very little Proviſions: That Major of Brigade Moncrieffe, who was carrying Orders, from the Commander in Chief, to Major Gladwin, under the Eſcort of this Detachment, being acquainted by Major Wilkins of the Reſolution he had taken, wrote a Letter to Major Gladwin, to acquaint him of it, that he might take his Meaſures accordingly. This Letter he ſent off the 12th of November, by two Hurons, of the Village near Quebec; which they delivered with great Fidelity the 18th, and in Conſequence Major Gladwin reduced his Garriſon to Two Hundred and Twelve Men, having Proviſion ſufficient for that Number, and ſent away the Detachment of the 55th Regiment, Hopkins's Independant Company, and Rogers's Volunteers: Captain Montreſor left Detroit the 20th November with theſe Corps; and tho' they had Intelligence that a large Body of Indians intended to Waylay them, they arrived ſafe at Niagara the 27th.

We have this further Intelligence by way of Boſton, That Major Wilkins's Eſcort of Proviſions, &c. was 600 Men, chiefly Regulars. And that the Garriſon at Detroit conſiſted of 400 Men on the 7th October, all in good Health.

The Week before laſt, an Inhabitant of Miniſink, being a Hunting for Deer, on the Weſt Side of Delaware, fell in with a ſingle Indian: They eſpied each other almoſt at an Inſtant, immediately tree'd, and after exchanging ſeveral Shot, the Indian imagined he had wounded his Antagoniſt, and ruſhed in upon him with his Tomahawk; but the White Man, after receiving two deſperate Wounds from the Indian, knock'd his Brains out with the End of his Muſket, cut his Head off, and brought it home in Triumph.

PHILADELPHIA, December 29.

The SPEECH of the Honourable JOHN PENN, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent and Suſſex, upon Delaware, to the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the ſaid Province.

Mr. SPEAKER, and Gentlemen of the ASSEMBLY,

NOTHING but my indiſpenſable Duty to His Majeſty, and a ſincere Deſire to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of the good People of this Government (to which the Honourable Proprietaries, with the King's royal Approbation, have been lately pleaſed to appoint me) could have prevailed on me to call you together, before the Time of your own Adjournment, as I preſume you had conſidered and fixed upon that as the moſt convenient to your domeſtic Affairs; but I am perſuaded, the ſame Motives which have influenced me on this Occaſion, will induce you chearfully to prefer the neceſſary Service of the Public to all private Conſiderations.

I am to inform you, Gentlemen, that very ſoon after my Arrival I received a Letter from Sir Jeffery Amherſt, deſigned at firſt for my immediate Predeceſſor, Mr. Hamilton, but (on Notice of my having taken upon me the Government) incloſed to me; in which he requeſts, that I would uſe my Influence with the Council and Aſſembly of this Province to raiſe One Thouſand Men, excluſive of commiſſioned Officers, to be divided into two Corps, of ten Companies each, commanded by their proper Field Officers; and that it will be neceſſary the whole ſhould be raiſed, and ready to join the King's Troops, or to be ſent on ſuch Services as the Commanding Officer in the Southern Diſtrict may direct, by the Firſt of March next, and the Time of their Service limited to the Firſt of November following; though he hopes every Thing may be finiſhed long before that Period; in which Caſe, the Troops will be ſent back to the Province.---You will ſee by the Letter, which I have ordered to be laid before you, that the General undertakes to furniſh the Men that ſhall take the Field with Tents, Proviſions and Arms, at the King's Expence; all therefore that is deſired of us, is to make Proviſion for their Pay, and to find them in Cloathing, which may conſiſt of a ſhort Jacket, Flannel Waiſtcoat, Leggings, &c.---You will alſo be informed, by the ſaid Letter, that the General hath made Applications to the Provinces of New-York and New-Jerſey, and to the Colony of Virginia, for certain Quotas of Men, to act in Conjunction with the King's Troops offenſively againſt the Indians; the former, by the Way of Lake Erie, &c. the latter, in Concert with ours, againſt the Delawares, Shawaneſe, and other Tribes, who have committed Hoſtilities againſt us. Theſe Meaſures he judges to be the moſt probable, for cruſhing the preſent Inſurrections of the Indians, and the moſt effectual for reducing them, and ſecuring Peace and Quiet to the Settlements hereafter. His Requiſition hath been ſince warmly renewed by General Gage, who hath lately ſucceeded to the chief Command of His Majeſty's Forces in North-America.

Gentlemen,

Every Man who is acquainted with the great Extent of Frontier of this and the neighbouring Colonies, and conſiders the Manner in which the Indians make War, muſt ſee the Diſadvantages each particular Province muſt labour under, in endeavouring ſingly to defend its own Settlements; and that nothing but a vigorous Exertion of the united Strength of the whole, and carrying the War into the Enemy's Country, can effectually ſecure our back Inhabitants from the barbarous Inroads of the Savages; or is ſo likely to reduce them ſpeedily to hearken to reaſonable Terms of Accommodation.

I do therefore moſt heartily recommend this Matter to your Conſideration; and doubt not, from your known Zeal for the King's Service in general, and your Regard for the Safety of this Province in particular, but you will comply with a Demand, which may be attended with ſuch happy Effects to both.

Gentlemen,

I with Pleaſure take this firſt Opportunity of ſpeaking to you as a Body, to acquaint you, that I have it in Charge from the Proprietaries, to aſſure you of their paternal Regard and Affection for the good People of this Province, and that they wiſh for nothing more than to promote their real Happineſs.---As to myſelf, I can with great Truth ſay, that I am moſt ſincerely diſpoſed to do every Thing in my Power, that may tend to the Advantage and Proſperity of the Province, and to cultivate and improve that Harmony and good Underſtanding with this, and all future Aſſemblies, during my Adminiſtration, which is ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the public Good, as well as the Eaſe and Happineſs of the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature.

December 20, 1763.

To the Honourable JOHN PENN, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, upon Delaware,

The ADDRESS of the REPRESENTATIVES of the FREEMEN of the ſaid Province, in General Aſſembly met.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

THE Repreſentatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennſylvania, in General Aſſembly met, with the moſt cordial Satisfaction embrace this Opportunity to congratulate your Honour on your ſafe Arrival among us, and Acceſſion to this Government.

The Appointment of one of the Deſcendants of our firſt worthy Proprietary to preſide over the Province, gives us high Pleaſure, and, we doubt not, is very agreeable to the People we repreſent; as we are induced to hope for many Advantages from the Adminiſtration of one of the Proprietary Family, whoſe true Intereſt is certainly ſo intimately united with that of the People, that neither can ſuffer an Injury, by any unfortunate Diſunion, without affecting the other.

Permit us therefore to return your Honour our ſincere Thanks, for the warm Profeſſions you are pleaſed to make, of doing every Thing in your Power that may tend to the Advantage and Proſperity of the Province, and to cultivate and improve Harmony, and a good Underſtanding, with us, and all future Aſſemblies.------A Conduct ſo judicious and obliging, muſt certainly render your Government eaſy and agreeable to yourſelf, and happy to the People, as you may be aſſured nothing ſhall be wanting on our Parts to promote and preſerve that Harmony, which is ſo eſſentially neceſſary at all Times for the Eaſe of the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature, and the public Welfare.

Permit us alſo to requeſt, you will be pleaſed to return the honourable Proprietaries our hearty Acknowledgments, for the Aſſurances they give us, of their paternal Regard and Affection for the good People of this Province, and their Inclination to promote our real Happineſs.-----Such a Diſpoſition, we are perſuaded, will ſecure to our Proprietaries the Eſteem and Reſpect of the Inhabitants of the Province, and induce them, on all Occaſions, to unite in promoting the Proprietary Intereſt, and the Happineſs of their Families.

May it pleaſe your HONOUR,

The good Opinion you are pleaſed to entertain of our Zeal for His Majeſty's Service, and our Regard for the Safety of the Province, is very grateful to us:-------The paternal Affection of the beſt of Sovereigns for His Subjects, however remote, and his conſtant Attention to the Preſervation of their Rights and Liberties, juſtly demand the higheſt Degree of Loyalty and Affection for His Royal Perſon, and Zeal for his Service, that a grateful People can poſſibly demonſtrate:-----And the important Charge with which we are entruſted, and our inviolable Duty to the People we repreſent, we hope will inſure to them our utmoſt Regard to their Protection and Safety. Influenced by theſe Motives, we have reſolved to comply fully with the General's Requiſition, recommended to us by your Honour, in granting to His Majeſty a Thouſand Men, excluſive of commiſſioned Officers, to be divided into two Corps, commanded by their proper Field Officers, and we ſhall immediateiy proceed to prepare a Bill for the raiſing of the Supplies neceſſary for the Cloathing and Paying the Troops, that the ſame may be preſented to your Honour for your Concurrence.

To this important Meaſure we have acceded with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, from a Conviction, that nothing leſs than a vigorous Exertion of the united Strength of the Colonies, in offenſive Operations againſt the Enemy, and making them ſenſible of the Weight of our juſt Reſentment for their Perfidy, in captivating, and cruelly murdering, our Inhabitants, as well as Traders, who were ſupplying them with the Neceſſaries of Life, at their own Inſtance and Sollicitation, can procure a Reſtitution of our Fellow-Subjects who have been perfidiouſly taken or detained ſince the late Peace, contrary to expreſs Treaties; nor can any Thing leſs, in our Opinion, obtain a Redreſs for the Loſſes ſuſtained by our Merchants, Traders and others, His Majeſty's Subjects of this Province, and reduce the Enemy to accept of reaſonable Terms of Accommodation: And, at the ſame time that we have reſolved thus fully to comply with the General's Requiſition, we make no Doubt the Lower Counties, under your Honour's Government, will likewiſe chearfully raiſe a proportionable Number of Men for the ſame important Service.

Signed, by Order of the Houſe,

Dec. 24, 1763. ISAAC NORRIS, Speaker.

To which his HONOUR was pleaſed to make the following

ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I AM extremely obliged to you for your kind and affectionate Addreſs. I ſhall take a particular Pleaſure in communicating to the Proprietaries that Part of it, wherein you are pleaſed to expreſs the due Senſe you have of their Regard and Affection, which I know will be moſt acceptable to them.

Your speedy Resolutions respecting the General's Requisition of Troops, to be employed in offensive Operations against our Indian Enemies, and the Chearfulness with which you have voted the full Quota demanded, cannot fail to recommend you to His Majesty's Favour, as you thereby testify your Zeal for His Service, as well as your Regard for the Safety and Happiness of the People of this Province.

The GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province, on Consideration of the GOVERNOR's Speech, and the Requisition made by the GENERAL, in Compliance with the same, voted a Thousand Men, to be employed in offensive Operations against the Enemy in the Spring.

From New-York we learn, that the Indians, under the Command of Pondiac, at Detroit, were tired of the War, having lost, in the different Attacks of the Fort, Vessels and Row Gallies, between Ninety and a Hundred of their best Warriors: That they had delivered up to Major Gladwin Seventeen English Prisoners: That Pondiac had discovered the Names of near Forty Frenchmen (some of them People of Consequence at Montreal) who were concerned in fomenting this War: And that the Garrison at Detroit was well supplied with every Necessary till the First of July next, and the Soldiers hearty and well.

From Pittsburgh we have Advice, that two Messengers had arrived there from Detroit, who bring the same Accounts respecting the Indians we have from New-York: That in coming through the Indian Towns, over the Ohio, they met and about Seventy wounded Men, which had not recovered of the Wounds they received in the Engagements with Colonel BOUQUET: That Fifty of their Warriors certainly lost their Lives in these Actions: And that the Indians, in general, seemed heartily tired of the War.

December 28. 1763. SAMUEL GARRIGUES.

Philadelphia, December 29. 1763.

For the Entertainment of the CURIOUS,

A COURSE of ELECTRICAL EXPERIMENTS, with explanatory LECTURES, is proposed to be exhibited at the College, in this City, To-day and To-morrow, and again on Monday and Tuesday, and Thursday and Friday, next Week, provided the Air be dry enough.

By EBENEZER KINNERSLEY. M. A. Professor of English and Oratory in the College and Academy of Philadelphia.

This Course will be divided into two Lectures; in which, among many other Particulars, it will be shewn, that the ELECTRIC FIRE, produced by the Friction of Glass, or any other Electric Substance, is not the same with CULINARY FIRE, but is real LIGHTNING, the very same, in all Respects, with that which is seen and heard in a THUNDER-GUST; and that our Bodies, at all Times, contain enough of it to set a House on Fire.

Above fifty curious Experiments will be made on LIGHTNING; the principal Laws by which it always acts will be exhibited and explained; and a practicable Method shewn, and an Instance given, of the happy Success thereof in this City, whereby Houses, Ships, &c. may be preserved from being damaged by LIGHTNING.

As no One need feel the Effect of any of these Experiments, but those who choose it, and as the Quantity of LIGHTNING made use of will be but small, the most timorous Person need not apprehend being either hurt or terrified. But, as the Knowledge of Nature tends to enlarge the human Mind, and give us more noble, more grand and exalted Ideas of the Author of Nature, it is presumed that this Course will be, to some, an agreeable Entertainment.

Those who desire to have their Dwellings effectually secured from the destructive Violence of one of the most awful Powers of Nature, may, by these Lectures and Experiments, learn more of the Nature and Properties of LIGHTNING than was ever known in the World till lately; and, at the same time, be fully convinced, that the Method proposed for their Security will, if put in Practice, be attended with the desired Success; and consequently, that Mankind, instead of having any just Objection thereto, have great Reason to bless GOD for so useful a Discovery. For, "A "prudent Man foreseeth the Evil, and hideth himself; but the "Simple pass on, and are punished." Prov. xxii. 3.

The Lecture to begin, each Day, precisely at Eleven o'Clock. Tickets to be had at the London Coffee-House, or at Mr. KINNERSLEY's House, in Market street; Price Half a Dollar for each Lecture. ⊕
